

Ethics as Ideals in Practice Workshop

14–15 November 2013
Institute for Advanced Study Konstanz
Organizers: Astrid Bochow, Rijk van Dijk, Thomas G. Kirsch

Thursday, 14 November 2013

Venue: Otto-Adam-Str. 5, Konstanz

15.00

Welcome at the Bischofsvilla

Venue: campus, Room Y 311

18.45

Keynote at the university campus:

The Continuous and Discontinuous Person:
Reflections on ethics from spirit mediums to modern legal subjects

Michael Lambek, University of Toronto

20.45

Reception with wine and cheese

Friday, 15 November 2013

Venue: Bischofsvilla, Seminarraum

9.00

Negotiations of the Understandably Unethical: Ghanaian Madams and the Moral Acceptance of Unethical Praxis in Botswana

Rijk van Dijk, ASC Leiden and University of Konstanz

9.45

Competing Constructions of Children as Moral Subjects: The Ethics of Evangelization Among Religious NGOs in Côte d'Ivoire

Marie-Nathalie Le Blanc, Université du Québec

10.30

Discussant: Tilmann Heil, University of Konstanz

11.00

Coffee

11.30

Dealing with Power: Subjectivity as a Matter of Magic and Ethics in Bali

Annette Hornbacher, University of Heidelberg

12.15

Professional Judgment and Quotidian Comment

David Parkin, University of Oxford

13.00

Discussant: Monika Wulz, University of Konstanz

13.30

Lunch

15.00

From the Ethics of Survival to the Continuation of Life

Astrid Bochow, MPI Halle and University of Konstanz

15.45

Possession, Punishment and the Principle of Charity:
Moral Learning and its Embodiment in Christian and Muslim Schools in Dar es Salaam

Hansjörg Dilger, Free University Berlin

16.30

Discussant: Thomas Weitin, University of Konstanz

17.00

Coffee

17.30

Ethical Subjects and the Community of Ethics in South Africa

Thomas G. Kirsch, University of Konstanz

18.15

Concluding Comments: Michael Lambek, University of Toronto

19.30

Dinner