

Reconstructing Memory in the City - Transnational and Local European Sites of Memory

Arbeitsgespräch mit der Balzan-Preis-Forschergruppe

in Kooperation mit dem Cluster und dem Institut für Gesellschaftlichen Zusammenhalt Konstanz

Mi, 12. Juni 2019, 18:45-20:15 Uhr
Bischofsvilla, Otto-Adam-Str. 5, Konstanz

Aleida and Jan Assmann

Welcome Address

Ulrike Capdepón

Monuments, Traces, and Memory Practices ‚from Below‘: The Representation of the Franco Dictatorship and the Street Name Controversy in Madrid

Gruia Badescu

Architecture, Urban Space, and new Memory Practices: Syncretic Place-Making and Cosmopolitan Imaginaries in the European City

Ann-Sophie Schoepfel

Vietnamese Migration Flows and the Making of Memory in European Cities. Imagination, Perception and Transformation of European Urban Spaces in Colonial and Postcolonial Contexts

Piotr Kisiel

European Urban Spaces after the Cold War (1991-2016). Search for an Identity or Commodity?

Please note that by providing papers, we would like to share some of our research results, however they will NOT be the basis of our presentations.

Access to the papers online:

https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1Sg0qV_ySK9qGmKO6YpVDqAuZT66S2Xzj?usp=sharing

Webpage:

<https://www.exc16.uni-konstanz.de/balzan-preis-forschergruppe.html?&L=1>

Research blog:

<https://memcit.hypotheses.org>