

Claiming Justice after Conflict:
The Stateless, the Displaced and the Disappeared at the Margins of the State
15 mars 2019 - FMSH, Salle A3-50, 54 Bd Raspail 75006 Paris

Organized by Yazid Ben Hounet (EHESS) and Judith Beyer (University of Konstanz)

10h-10h15 – Introduction (Judith Beyer / Yazid Ben Hounet)

10h15-11h15 – Stateless (discussant – Shalini Randeria, IWM)

Judith Beyer (University of Konstanz)

Accountability and justice in asylum claims. Debating the issue of statelessness in the UK.

Catherine Allerton (LSE)

Child rights for children of migrants? Statelessness and invisibility amongst Filipino and Indonesian migrant families in Sabah, Malaysia.

11h15-11h30 : Break

11h30-13h – Displaced (discussant – Laetitia Atlani-Duault, FMSH)

Carolien Jacobs (Leiden University)

Off the radar: everyday justice and security for urban displaced

Siri Lamoureaux (Paris)

Claiming sexual and reproductive health rights: displaced Nuba women and biopolitics in Sudan

Elisabeth Claverie (CNRS).

Les témoins-victimes devant la Cour Pénale Internationale. Le cas des affaires RD Congo

13h – 14h30: lunch break

14h30- 16h45 – Disappeared (discussant – Bertram Turner, MPI, Halle)

Paola Diaz (EHESS)

Disappearances in Latin America: from the dissident to the migrant

Sabrina Melenotte (LAIOS et FMSH, Paris)

Clamer la justice au Mexique en cherchant les disparus

15h30-15h45 : Break

Alice Wilson (University of Sussex)

In lieu of reconciliation: hidden remembrance of Dhufar's defeated revolutionaries

Yazid Ben Hounet (CNRS – LAS)

The families of the disappeared in Algeria and their quest for truth and justice.

17h-18h – Feedback and Open Discussion

Bertram Turner (MPI, Halle)

(Infrastructures of post-conflict settings: law and technologies of (non-)recognition)